

The Billy Goat

By Ma'inah Tij
Writing Coach: Umm Naml

Meet Ma'inah Tij

Mutma'inah Tijani, going by the Pseudonym "Ma'inah Tij" is a girl of 5 with outstanding talent. She is in Nursery 2 and loves to express her talents in spectacular ways.

Ma'inah loves reading, writing and swimming. Her best colors are pink and purple. Her best food is chips and she loves watermelon.

Ma'inah is currently enrolled for a 3 months narrative writing course with Umm Naml Reads (UNR), being coached by the author, Umm Naml. She hopes to groom and polish her writing skill, and some day, be a renowned Muslim writer.

She is a role model for her peers, maa shaa Allah. May Allah keep guiding her. Aameen.

On a sunny day, in a large farm, there lived Billy Goat

She ate too much grasses, so her stomach ached

After a while, the farm owner went into the farm to feed the animals and found Billy Goat moaning

Quickly, he rushed her to the hospital to see a veterinary doctor

The doctor treated Billy Goat and she got better

The farmer returned to the farm with the Billy Goat

From then onwards, Billy Goat learnt not to over eat

The End

Join our 3 months Online Narrative Writing Course

Ages 5 - 20

Cost: N15,000 for 3 months

Call: +2349037702357

WhatsApp: +2347057680817