Jake had a big home. His home was made of pine logs. In his home, Pete had a nap. Pete was Jake's cute cat. They had the best time.

The sun set. Jake went to bed. Pete went to bed too. A great flash lit up a twig. Next, a log was on fire. Then, the fire was a big, big flame.

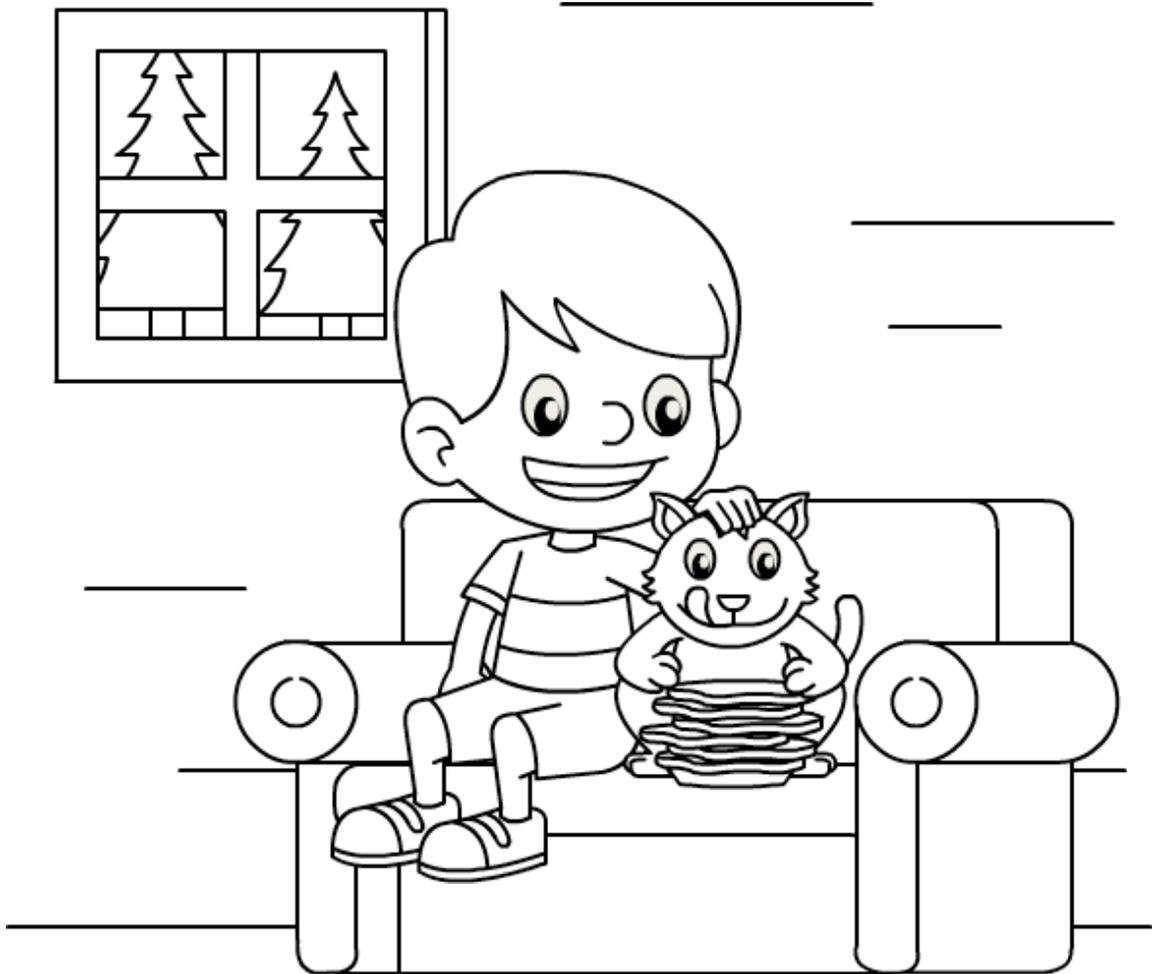

Jake was still in bed. He did not wake up. The fire made a big CRACK, POP! But still, Jake did not wake up. Lots of smoke came into Jake's home.

Pete woke up. With his fine nose, Pete could smell the smoke. Then, Pete made a big fuss. He ran on Jake and bit him. Pete the cat woke Jake up.

“Fire!” said Jake. “I must save my home.” A fire truck came. The fire men had a big hose and a lot of water. Jake’s home was safe.

Jake held Pete. "You are the best cat. You kept us safe." Jake gave Pete a thank you gift: a big pile of fresh ham. The End.
